Category displayed in result on website is as per information provided by AI-NEET.
Candidates claiming category reservation in UP state but have not claimed category reservation in AI-NEET should attend the counselling at their allotted UP State Rank with all the required documents in original to support their category claim which shall be considered by counselling board at the time of counselling.